

Leaders Day: 25th March, 2010

A vision of the Kingdom -

Exploring themes of equality, diversity and unity from Revelation 7

Bev Thomas is a freelance consultant and lecturer. For the last 20 years she has worked as a trainer and speaker on social justice and 'race' issues. Bev has worked previously as project development officer for Churches' Commission for Racial Justice, board member of Evangelical Alliance and the chair of the Christian Socialist Movement. Bev is a lay minister in the New Testament Church of God.

Mainstream North welcomes Bev as she makes this important contribution to our thinking and practice, in this fundamental area of our life and work.

Timing and Venue

Blackley Centre near Huddersfield.

It will run from 10am to 3pm and cost £15 each, including lunch.

Directions

Directions are to be found below, or on this link:

(Google Maps – postcode - HX5 0TD)

Leave the M62 at junction 24, (NB if leaving the motorway Westbound you will need to loop back on yourself at the first roundabout and cross back under the motorway.) Take the 'Blackley Road' road, signposted towards Elland and the centre is clearly marked, half a mile on the left

Booking your place

To book your place, please email the Mainstream North administrator, Hazel Gilbert, on hazel.gilbert@hbc.org.uk, or call Hazel at Hoole Baptist Church, on 01244 312037. We look forward to seeing you. This is the first of a number of planned events through which we aim to equip and encourage you and your leadership teams in your discipleship and leading.

NB Withdrawals may be accepted up to one week before the event, but after that time there will be a £10 charge to cover expenditure to which Mainstream North is then committed.
